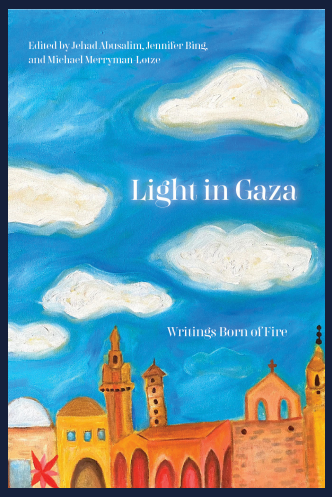
BAY AREA WORLD WITHOUT WALLS PRESENTS:

LIGHT IN GAZA

AN EVENING WITH YOUSEF ALJAMAL

Gazan author and Palestinian refugee Yousef Aljamal will join us to share what it is like to live behind the multiple visible and invisible walls of Gaza, ways in which Gazans are defying the constraints of these walls, and how we can work together to bring them down.

Wed. Oct. 11th at 6:30 pm
Lakeshore Avenue
Baptist Church
3534 Lakeshore Ave
Oakland, CA



American Friends Service Committee

Yousef M. Aljamal is a Palestinian refugee from Al-Nusierat refugee camp in the Gaza Strip. He obtained an MA degree from the Department of International and Strategic Studies at the University of Malaya and a PhD at the Middle East Institute at Sakarya University in Turkey. His research interests are in diaspora, security, and indigenous studies. Yousef has contributed to a number of books and journal articles which highlight topics that include Palestinians in the diaspora, travel restrictions imposed on Palestinians, and struggles for liberation.
